

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who is the Rising Star Award open to?

- anyone who works directly or indirectly in the roading industry under the age of 40

Can consultants enter?

- yes

Who sees my entry? How do I know that its contents will be kept confidential?

- only the judges, and staff at Freeman dealing with entries. If you become a finalist a media package will be created with your sign-off
- information that companies do not wish publicised should be clearly marked (commercially sensitive, do not share), in which case it will only be viewed by those involved in the judging process and they will treat it as confidential
- all finalists are required to submit and/or participate in the production of audio-visual material supporting their entry for broadcast at the awards ceremony

The entry deadline is 5:00 pm on Wednesday 21 August 2024 - can I get an extension?

- no extensions are allowed

When will we find out who the finalists are?

- 11 September 2024

When will we find out who the winner is?

- on the night of the Future Roads conference dinner

I am completing the entry form on behalf of someone. Whose details do I register?

- Register with your own details as this will give you access to the entry via your email address. Within the entry form, you will complete your nominee's contact details, assigning the entry to them with their permission

Do I have to attend the Future Roads conference to attend the awards dinner?

- no, you can register separately for the dinner

ENDS